

US Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce is proud to be hosting the "Top Ten Asian American Business Awards" reception at the Barclay Center Showroom of New Jersey Nets on the 38th floor of The New York Times Building.

Hailed as the Business Oscar for the Asian Business community, the Top Ten Asian Business Awards is the largest Pan Asian Business award program in the Northeast region. Sponsored by many large Fortune 500 corporations such as Merck, Time Warner as well as leading Asian organizations like AAARI, the Top Ten Asian Business Awards honors Asian American owned companies with the fastest revenue growth over the last three years.

This award program honors Asian entrepreneurs with outstanding leadership, vision and accomplishments who have built a successful business and also supported the local business community. The winners of this program will participate in the national "Fast 50" Award program at USPAACC annual event Celebration on May 25-27th at the Ritz Carlton Hotel in Washington D.C.

For more information, please contact Mr. Savio S. Chan, president of US Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce, Northeast Region at schan@uspaacc.com.